

THE FINAL HURDLE

WILL TOWN COUNCIL PUT AN END TO 40-YEAR WAIT FOR SKATEPARK?

TOWN councillors are tonight (Wednesday) expected to make the final decision on the long-awaited skatepark project.

After decades in the waiting, Lyme Regis Town Council can cross the final hurdle tonight as it considers whether to enter a 20-year lease with West Dorset District Council to use a portion of Charmouth Road car park for the facility.

The district council recently granted planning permission for the town council-funded £150,000 skatepark, but its Executive Committee then had to decide whether it was willing to give up its car parking spaces.

At a meeting last week, the committee agreed with the officer's recommendation that it should offer the town council the land on a 20-year lease at a cost of £2,000 a year plus inflation to make up for revenue it would lose from the car parking spaces.

The meeting was well attended by current and former town councillors and other skatepark supporters, and although they were disappointed that the district council did not offer its land for free, they are now hoping for a big turnout at tonight's town council meeting, to be held in Guildhall at 7pm, to encourage members to take up the offer.

Following last week's district council meeting, former town councillor Lucy Campbell, who has fronted the campaign for the skatepark for years, said she felt the offer was "unfair" as West Dorset had contributed towards other skateparks in the area, but she still encouraged as many people as possible to attend tonight's meeting to push for a final agreement.

Posting on Lyme Regis Skatepark Project Facebook page she said: "It does seem unfair to Lyme when they gave £10,000 to Sherborne for their skatepark and gave Dorchester car parking land for free for theirs; Lyme will have had no contribution from WDDC at all.

"However, that's the deal on the table and it now requires the town council to agree to the annual rent. We now need as many people to attend next week's full council [tonight] as possible.

"This is literally the final hurdle but it needs you to

■ SKATEPARK campaigner Lucy Campbell has said West Dorset's offer of a lease is 'unfair' but is still encouraging the town council to go ahead with it come and show your support. It will be a lot harder for them to refuse it if the whole Guildhall is packed out with supporters."

Miss Campbell had previously argued that an agreement was made in principle several years ago with West Dorset officers that the land would be transferred to the town council for no cost. When the possibility of a lease or land swap was raised, she publicly blamed town, district and county councillor Daryl ROBIN Hodges runs the Pinhay House Residential Care Home with his wife of 31 years Carole.

Mr Hodges, 55, also runs the Saturday Morning Football sessions in Uplyme, encouraging youngsters to stay active and develop a passion for the beautiful game.

WHAT'S the aim of Saturday Morning Football in Uplyme?

The aim is to encourage children and young people to come along and try football in a friendly, non-competitive environment, and to help people make friends.

WHERE is it held?

On Uplyme playing field from 9am to 10.15am every Saturday from September to May. We play in Woodroffe Sports Hall from January to March. We started going there when the field was badly flooded and we couldn't play for several weeks. It helps to guarantee football during the wet, winter months, and the kids love the speed of 5-a-side games.

HOW did you get involved with the Saturday Morning Football programme?

It was started about 17 years ago by Uplyme Church as a spin off from their "Friday Club" that was held in the village hall. A group of lads wanted to play football so they used to turn up for a kick-about on a Saturday morning. I got involved when my boys started wanting to play and as we attend Uplyme Church it was a natural thing to do.

HOW is it funded?

Purely by donation. We don't charge to come along on Saturday mornings, it's a service to the community of Uplyme run by the church. The only time we ask for a small donation is when we move into Woodroffe Sports Hall for the winter, as we have to pay to hire it. The equipment is provided by the leaders and Uplyme Church. We have been very lucky in the past two years, with some generous donations from the community. People obviously see it as a blessing to the village.

IS there an age limit for the children attending?

Well, it is aimed at 5-11 year olds, but we have children from about four years to lads of about 15 coming along. Everybody seems to get something out of it; we even have children from Chard who come along. We all warm up together and then split up into age/ability groups and play some football. Every now and again we mix everybody up and it's great to see the older lads helping and encouraging the youngsters.

HOW has your role with the programme developed?

I started off just helping out on the odd occasion, however, as the years have gone by I took over the running of it. I have to ensure we have all the records and checks up to date, the risk assessments are done and we have first aid cover while we are playing. From being just a bunch of lads and a church leader turning up on a Saturday morning, we now have to be properly organised, although we are still the same at the core.

WHAT gives you the motivation to get out of bed on a Saturday morning?

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

I think it's just the enthusiasm I encounter from the children that come along. They are desperate to join in and play some football. The parents often arrive all bleary eyed at 8.50am, saying that their child has been up since 6am with their football boots on asking if it's time to go yet!

We've had lots of kids go on to play for local teams, and a few that have been on the books of professional clubs. They all started with two left feet kicking a ball at Uplyme.

WHAT do you try to instil in the children?

It's all about trying to be inclusive. It doesn't matter if you can't play or if you are blessed with great skill, being part of a group that values where you are is very important. I think the church background to the group leaders helps us to ensure we keep a "love thy neighbour" approach to what is happening. Everybody has something to offer.

YOU also run a business in Lyme Regis?

Yes, my wife and I own and run Pinhay House Care Home. We've been there for the past 27 years. Making space to do the football and other things in a "24 hour a day" business has been challenging, but I feel we manage it quite well.

WHAT do you do in your spare time?

I've been a member of Uplyme Church for 25 years and I lead the services there once a month. I'm on the Deanery Synod and the Diocesan synod as the churches representative for the parish and the vicar's representative on the Bestic Trust that is progressing the building of the new school in Uplyme. Last year I helped set up, and now help run Seaton Memory Café for those in the local community who need help and support. It's been going a year now,

Parents of Cobb tragedy victim to return to Lyme to fundraise for RNLI

THE parents of Claire Perkins, who drowned in Lyme Regis harbour in 2011 after her wheelchair plunged off the Cobb, will return to the town in July to help raise funds for the RNLI.

Mark and Paula Perkins, from the West Midlands, have arranged their holiday to coincide with the annual Lifeboat Week and have contacted organisers to offer their services.

Their daughter Claire, who was severely disabled, died aged 20 after her electric wheelchair fell from the Cobb into the harbour during a family holiday in October 2011.

A huge rescue operation including the lifeboat crew, coastguards, police and paramedics ensued, but emergency services personnel struggled to lift Claire's heavy wheelchair to the surface.

Local fisherman Harry May also played a huge part in the rescue and was the first to dive in the water after witnessing Claire fall in. He received a Royal Humane Society award for his attempts to save her.

At the inquest into Claire's death, West Dorset coroner Michael Johnston said the most likely explanation for the accident was that Claire had moved around and caught the electric wheelchair's joystick.

Mrs Perkins said: "We will never forget the efforts that so many people made – including the lifeboat crew – to save our daughter on that awful day, and we felt that by helping out during Lifeboat Week we would be saying thank you to all those involved.

"We don't mind what we do, whether it's helping to sell ducks for the duck race or walking along the seafront with a collection bucket."

Responding to Mr and Mrs Perkins' offer to help, Irene Roper, chairman of the Lyme Regis and Charmouth RNLI Guild, said: "We are very touched by their offer, and look forward to welcoming them next month."

The Perkins family have already made generous donations to the RNLI following the accident. A Lifeboat Week will run from July 18th to 25th and will include displays by the Red Arrows on Monday, July 20th and 5pm and the RAF Falcons on July 24th, also at 5pm.

Council selects four new members

LYME Regis Town Council have co-opted four new members to bring the authority back to full capacity.

The council was left short of numbers after only 10 candidates put their names forward ahead of the May 7th elections.

After considering profiles from a total of six candidates, councillors went into closed session and selected Richard Doney, Brian Larcombe MBE, Stephen Miller and Liz Robinson as new members. New councillors Doney, Miller and Robinson will take up their positions this week but Councillor Larcombe will have to wait until the electoral register is updated, most likely to be sometime in August, as he has only just become an elector in Lyme Regis.

Councillor Doney is a chartered engineer and founder director and shareholder of Lyme Regis Brewery. He is also a volunteer at St Michael's Primary School, involved with Lyme Regis Business Group and has previously sat on the council's Tourism & Economic Development Committee as a non-council member. In his application for co-option he said that his experience and skills would be used to "beneficial effect" as a councillor.

Councillor Larcombe is an HR senior executive officer at the MoD's Hydrographic Office in Taunton. Having grown up in Lyme Regis, Brian has recently bought a house in the town, saying: "I've never really left Lyme." He was awarded the MBE in January for services to the UK Hydrographic Office and industrial relations, and has also sat on Comeytrowe Parish Council in Taunton for 21 years, 17 of these as chairman.

Councillor Miller was brought up in Coventry and has a career spanning 36 years at the National Westminster Bank behind him, now working on an ad hoc basis for Martin Diplock estate agents having moved to Lyme Regis in 2011. He also spent three years on Lauder Community Council while living in Scotland and said he has "a lot to offer Lyme Regis as a servant of the local community".

Liz Robinson is the owner of a self-catering holiday let business based in Seaton and she moved to Lyme Regis from East Devon two years ago. Liz said she is a keen supporter of local businesses and is a member of Lyme Regis Business Group, as well Turn Lyme Green and Mrs Ethelston's Primary School PTA. She describes herself as "logical, diligent, analytical and patient" and is interested in the future development of Lyme.

Unsuccessful candidates were independent financial advisor Duncan Lay and former radio frequency engineer and senior manager with the BBC, John Ridley.

Turner for "blocking" the project due to personal grievances he held against her and other former members of the town council.

Councillor Turner has described the proposed lease as a "good offer which should suit councillors on both sides".

Town councillor and Councillor Turner's sister, Cheryl Reynolds, also said she thought the offer was unfair but she wanted to see the project started with "no more excuses".

A report on the matter by town clerk John Wright will be considered at tonight's meeting. In it he states that the town council's long-term forecast surpluses can "comfortably accommodate" annual expenditure of £2,000 and he recommends that the council enters the 20-year lease.

Mystery of the shredded paper

A LARGE amount of shredded newspaper which appeared on the streets of Charmouth has left residents confused.

The paper appeared all down The Street in Charmouth overnight last Wednesday, with some even spreading into Lyme Regis.

Village residents say the same thing has happened for the past two years at the same time of year, but so far no one has got to the bottom of the mystery.

The incident sparked discussion on social networking site Facebook, with residents questioning the reason behind the annual littering of paper and complaining that it made the village look a mess.

A large quantity of the shredded paper was pages of the View From Bridport. Staff at the View From offices are looking into this and spent time on Wednesday evening and Thursday morning clearing up the paper and speaking to distributors for any possible information.

The police are also investigating the incident and anyone with information should call 101.

AN 82-year-old man from Charmouth has been given a suspended sentence after admitting to causing a fatal crash in which a cyclist died.

Council launches public survey on future of Tourist Information Centre

By FRANCESCA EVANS
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

WEST Dorset District Council is undertaking a review of its tourist information service, with a view to making a decision on the future direction of its four Tourist Information Centres in Lyme Regis, Bridport, Dorchester and Sherborne by January 2016.

The district council is reviewing all aspects of the service, including its functions, budgets, staffing and systems. Possible outcomes includes Tourist Information Centres remaining in place but run by partners such as town councils, volunteer organisations or trusts; reduced district council services or closure of centres with a greater reliance of on-line information provision.

As part of this review, the council has launched an public survey to seek the views of customers, who may be visitors to the area or local residents, as well as residents who may not have used the service and local businesses or organisations.

The survey can be completed online at www.dorsetforyou.com/consultationtracker or by completing a paper copy available from Tourist Information Centres.

Lyme Regis Town Council is expected to make its own response to the survey at tonight's (Wednesday) Tourism & Economic Development Committee.

Data and information collected through the surveys will be used to inform the development of options for future service delivery and when options have been evaluated, there will be a full public consultation.

Taking part in this survey will help the council to decide upon the future of the service. All responses will be held securely and will not be passed to any third party. Collated results may be published anonymously as part of future committee reports.

The deadline for receipt of completed surveys is 4.30pm on Friday, July 3rd. Hard copies may be returned to Tourist Information Centres or to the main council offices at South Walks House in Dorchester.

This review is one of a series of reviews named "2020 Vision" that West Dorset District Council and Weymouth and Portland Borough Council are undertaking with the aim of transforming delivery service and achieving savings of £3.2million by April 2017.

For more information about the context and detail of the reviews, visit the website www.dorsetforyou.com/2020vision

Good year for halls

THE well-used Woodmead Halls in Lyme Regis is entering a new phase in its development, committee members were told at last week's annual meeting.

Long-serving chairman Stan Williams reported that a planning application had been submitted for the halls to be extended to improve facilities.

He said that the halls needed to increase income as they could not rely on voluntary staff in the future.

Treasurer Susanne Whitmore reported another successful financial year.

Officers elected: chairman - Stan Williams; vice-chairman - Nick Robinson; secretary - Gilly Warr; treasurer Susanne Whitmore.

Committee: John Broom, Charlie Kapur and Anita Williams.

Councillors may have to seek alternative park and ride site

TOWN councillors will start to look into whether they can continue a park and ride operation on Sidmouth Road or whether an alternative site needs to be found ahead of the 2017 summer season.

The town council recently received planning permission to continue using the site as a park and ride until September 30th 2016 from East Devon District Council, as the field lies just outside the boundary of Lyme and within the parish of Uplyme.

During the planning application process, Uplyme Parish Council complained that the town council had started using the site as a park and ride over the Easter period. They also objected to its continued use as it was originally set up to make up for lost car parking spaces in the town during coastal protection works, which had since finished, and said there was now "no justification" given for it.

Speaking at last week's Town Management Committee meeting, Councillor Daryl Turner said the town council should start looking for alternative park and ride sites now, as he did not think they would receive planning permission again.

"On two previous occasions it has been left beyond the last minute for a planning application to be put forward to carry this facility forward," he said.

"Uplyme have mentioned the fact that it was put in place purely for sea defence works, which has now been finished. There's strong chance that it won't be approved again so we have 18 months to seek an alternative."

He suggested a working party be set up to take the matter forward "with some sort of urgency" and added: "The writing is on the wall that is might not happen again so we need to look at options for alternatives."

The Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Owen Lovell, pointed out that the planning permission was renewed despite the coastal protection works having already finished, so he suggested that the town council liaise with East Devon and Uplyme Parish Council before giving up on the Sidmouth Road site.

"We should be looking to make sure we don't get caught short but the first thing we should do is go back to East Devon to see if there's any chance that they might allow it.

"I know there's opposition to it; everything Lyme does unfortunately seems to garner opposition, but I'd rather we worked together.

"We persistently get complaints from Uplyme about the amount of traffic coming through and half of that is people looking for parking so surely it's better that they park up there and there is a facility there to alleviate cars floating about. I thought our neighbours would see the sense in that."

Councillor Stan Williams, an Uplyme resident himself, commented: "They're never going to be on our side."

Councillor Cheryl Reynolds replied: "We have to find some way of working with them properly."

Councillor Michaela Ellis added: "I agree with what Daryl has said, we have to start looking at this now. I have always said we have to be more proactive; we are so reactive.

"If we can't have that site up there after we've spoken to East Devon and liaised with Uplyme then we need to find another site. The park and ride is critical with the amount of visitors we now get coming here."

Councillor Williams said: "It's better to have more out of town parking and less in-town parking."

Midnight torchlight for summer solstice

■ LYME Regis celebrated the summer solstice with a torchlight procession along the seafront on Saturday night. The midnight procession, now in its third year, was organised by Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Committee with numbers attending doubling year on year. Those carrying torches were led along Marine Parade by town crier Alan Vian, finishing in Langmoor Gardens where a giant beacon was lit. Organisers said the switching off of street lights, a new initiative of Dorset County Council, added to the atmosphere of the event creating a truly dramatic sight.

Williams family take top council spots

VETERAN town councillor Stan Williams has been elected chairman of the Town Management Committee while his daughter, Councillor Anita Williams, will continue to lead Planning & Highways.

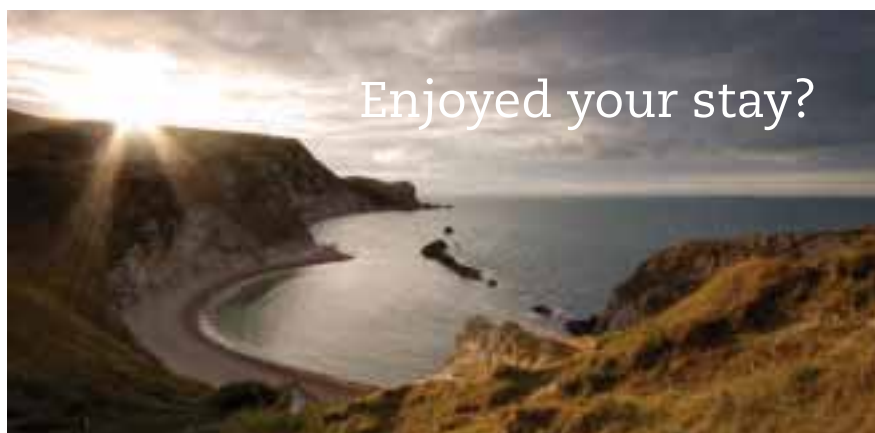

Councillor Stan Williams, 81, was nominated for his chairmanship by new town councillor John Broom. He was seconded by his daughter, Councillor Anita Williams, and elected with no other nominations.

Councillor Broom was then elected as vice-chairman, having been nominated by the Mayor, Councillor Owen Lovell, and also seconded by Councillor Anita Williams.

Councillor Anita Williams was also recently re-elected chairman of the Planning & Highways Committee. She was proposed by Councillor Michaela Ellis and seconded by her father.

Anita then proposed Councillor Cheryl Reynolds as her vice-chairman, seconded also by Councillor Stan Williams and agreed.

Lyme celebrates opening of sea defence works

LYME Regis celebrated the completion of a £19.5million project when the latest sea defence works were officially opened last week.

Phase IV of the coastal protection scheme has secured up to 480 homes and 390 metres of coastline to the eastern end of the town, plus a main route into Lyme Regis and facilities such as a car park, allotments and football club.

The works, funded by a £14.6million grant by Defra, £4.27million from Dorset County Council and £600,000 from West Dorset District Council, included the construction of a new seawall along East Cliff and steps up to Charmouth Road car park.

The scheme was officially opened last Wednesday by chairman of West Dorset District Council, Councillor Peter Shortland, and former chairman of Wessex Regional Flood and Coastal Committee, Alan Lovell, in front of a large crowd including town councillors, representatives from the district and county councils, Environment Agency and contractors Balfour Beatty, and students from the Woodroffe School.

In his speech, Mr Lovell described the scheme as "essential", adding: "The alternative would have been disaster."

He paid tribute to all those who contributed to the project, especially those who were not usually put in the spotlight and those who worked through atrocious weather conditions.

"We are singularly grateful to all individuals who have played any part in the success of this scheme. Lon may your efforts to protect life and environment of this part of West Dorset continue," he added.

Referring to the start of the coastal protection scheme in the early 1990s, the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Owen Lovell, commented: "We in Lyme Regis are fortunate that the scheme started when it did and that West Dorset made an early commitment to Lyme and pushed it through like they did in difficult financial times.

"On behalf of Lyme Regis, thank you. It's a job well done!"

Councillor Shortland paid tribute to those who sat on voluntary panels offering local knowledge to engineers, which he said had saved on both the cost and time.

He and Mr Lovell then unveiled a plaque, naming the seawall Church Cliff Walk, before those attending were offered tours of the coastal protection works.

Traffic-free seafront 'bombarded' with vehicles

THE town council has expressed concerns that the "traffic-free" Marine Parade in Lyme Regis is being "bombarded" with unauthorised vehicles.

Concerns were raised about too much traffic on the seafront when the council was asked to review its policy on the management of Marine Parade and Cart Road vehicular access at last week's Town Management Committee.

Committee chairman Councillor Stan Williams, who has campaigned against traffic on the seafront for years, said the "big, big problem" was enforcement, and that the council's enforcement officers were not given the correct instruction on how to deal with unauthorised vehicles.

"We need to be much firmer," he said.

The Mayor, Councillor Owen Lovell, said that the council needed to be more "proactive", and suggested that any event organisers or business owners who were breaching the vehicular access policy should lose the right to any access in the future.

The council operations manager Elliot Herbert said: "We are having big problems down on the parade keeping vehicles off it. They're not even asking us and are just turning up.

"Shop owners and events are generally very good, deliveries are off in time, but there's a lot of building work going on down they. What is reasonable? It's so difficult to judge. We are being bombarded left, right and centre; you turn your back and they are on there."

Mr Herbert also expressed concerns that two many keys for barriers on the seafront had been distributed and the council no longer had a record of everyone who had one. He said that an electronic barrier using key fobs had been installed at Monmouth Beach and this eliminated this problem.

Councillor Anita Williams suggested that the council look into installing electronic barriers with fobs in place of all its traditional gates on the seafront.

"The one at Monmouth beach was not horrendously expensive and saves on key costs," she added.

Councillor Michaela Ellis agreed, arguing that some people had probably made their own copies of the existing keys and lent them out to other people.

Mr Herbert advised that the electronic barriers cost about £1,000 each so it would be expensive to replace all the traditional gates. However, it was agreed that he should come back to the committee with some final costs for them to consider.

Other traffic-related concerns on the seafront included car shows. Mr Herbert said the council did not get much positive feedback from car shows and car clubs used it as an opportunity for free parking on the seafront.

"It's OK when they're part of a larger event but when certain car clubs just want to come and park and display, that's when we have the problems," he said.

Councillor also complained about incidents in which display cars had been left unattended on the seafront, creating problems for cleaners and others who needed to use Marine Parade.

It was agreed that only car shows which are part of a larger event, such as Lifeboat Week or the Folk Festival would be permitted in future. Mr Herbert said this would "eliminate a massive risk" to the council.

It was also agreed that organisers of car shows and other events which required vehicular access to the seafront should appoint a named individual responsible for risk assessment and compliance to the council's policies.

A big welcome home for Candles riders

CYCLISTS supporting Candles on the Cobb were welcomed back to Lyme Regis with cheers after completing a 174-mile ride from Land's End.

All 35 cyclists successfully completed the "Land's End to John the Bakers" cycle over the weekend, a take on the more traditional Land's End to John O'Groats route named after the former bakers in Coombe Street.

Setting off on Saturday morning, the group completed 85 miles before a stop over near Saltash. They completed a further 89 miles on Sunday before riding down Broad Street and on to Marine Parade where they were met with crowds of supporters keen to cheer them over the finish line.

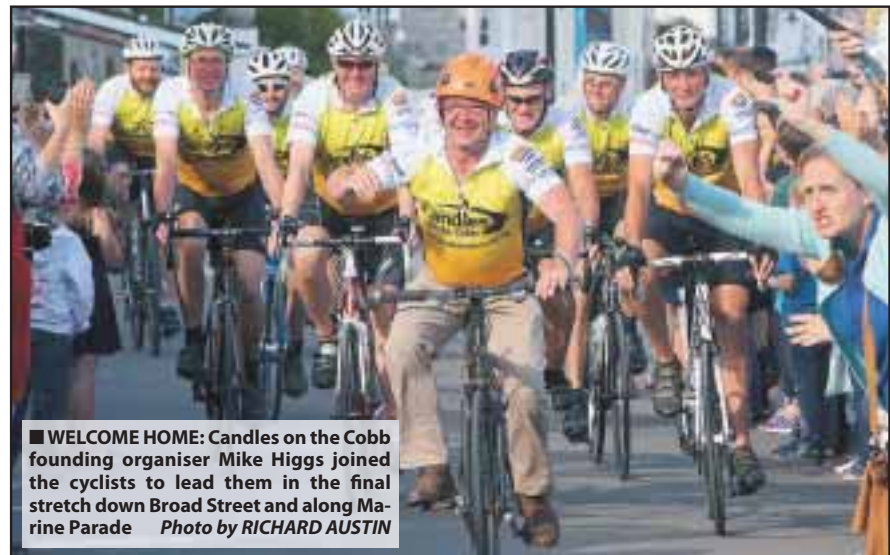

Lyme Regis Majorettes waved their pom poms as the cyclists made their way through the crowds, and other local youth organisations which will benefit from Candles on the Cobb funding were also represented.

The cyclists were welcomed home by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Owen Lovell, who presented them with medals. He congratulated them on their achievement, describing it as a "wonderful ride for a wonderful cause".

He also thanked the Candles on the Cobb Committee for their fundraising efforts over the years and said they were hoping to top the £100,000 mark this year.

Money raised from the cycle, the total of which was not known at the time of going to press, will go towards Candles on the Cobb funds, which will this year be split between local youth groups and Make A Wish UK. The main event will be held on Sunday, August 30th when 5,000 candles will light up the historic Cobb harbour. For further details visit www.candlesonthecobb.org

ArtsFest's new sculpture trail to develop over summer months

SINCE 2003, Lyme Regis ArtsFest has organised an autumn arts festival which features group exhibitions, events, workshops and an art trail.

Organisers have this year added an sculpture trail to the programme, which will develop over the coming summer months, and St Michael's Parish Church is one of the first locations to take part.

By August, there will be two sculptures in the church grounds. The first, "Vibrant Skyline", is an installation using an ornamental willow to embellish the chestnut fence on the churchyard boundary. It aims to provide a splash of colour on the skyline all through the summer and will take some weeks to install, with small additions being made on separate occasions.

"Vibrant Skyline" by John Calder, will attempt to articulate this year's ArtsFest theme, which is "In Transition".

John said: "It is placed on the boundary between the churchyard and the cliffs where the new fence already marks a dramatic transition point.

"On the one side, gravestones celebrate the lives of people who once lived locally but are gone. On the other side, a bold attempt has been made to resist the natural collapse of the land into the sea. You might say that the fence marks a transition from an acceptance to a denial.

"As the installation unfolds over the next few weeks, the fence itself will be in transition from a striking traditional form into a piece of trivial fun. Over the summer the sun and rain will dull the natural glow of the willow to a quiet brown.

"Finally, as winter sets in, the willow will be removed to leave not a trace of its intervention, and to be recycled as fire-lighting material."

Council make contribution towards summer PA system

THE town council has agreed to pay a quarter of the cost of hiring a professional PA system for summer events on Lyme Regis seafront.

Town crier Alan Vian wrote to the town council on behalf of the organisers of Lifeboat Week, Regatta & Carnival Week and Candles on the Cobb asking it to fund or contribute towards the £1,520 cost of hiring the PA system for the summer.

Members considered the request at last week's Town Management Committee.

Committee chairman, Councillor Stan Williams, said he was "not happy" about the situation, as when the Marine Parade shelters were rebuilt they were supposed to be fitted for a PA system and he did not believe they were.

He suggested a mobile PA system which could be taken to special events would be a cheaper option.

Councillor Michaels Ellis said it was a shame the three organisations did not group together to submit an application when the council made its annual minor grants.

She said that the council had previously looked at costings for a permanent PA system on the seafront, but at about £40,000 for three years it was not viable.

Councillor Anita Williams said: "I think it's a really useful service not just for events but emergencies and lost children. It's probably a bonus."

Councillor John Broom suggested that the council pay a quarter of the price - £380 - and other three organisations split the rest, which was agreed. It was also suggested that they consider applying through the minor grants system next year.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Credit Union looking for more volunteers

THE Lyme Regis service point of First Dorset Credit Union has been operating successfully in the town for a number of years.

It relies on a small team of volunteers to run the service point every Tuesday morning at St Michael's Business Centre (LymeNet).

The team would welcome the addition of several new volunteers, so if you feel you could offer your services, they would be pleased to meet you.

There are no qualifications necessary to become a volunteer with the Credit Union - but it is useful if a person has a friendly manner, is discrete and reasonably numerate. Reliability and availability are important.

The duties of a service point volunteer involve opening up the service point on a Tuesday morning with a colleague, attending to members who may want to deposit or withdraw money, helping members fill out loan application forms, joining new members and explaining to them what the Credit Union is, shutting down the service point and sending the transactions to the head office in Dorchester.

The team operates a rota, so a volunteer may work only every second or third Tuesday, or as much as they can offer. Some volunteers who can offer more of their time and skills might consider joining the team in Dorchester, for instance to help process loan applications.

Ability to use a computer is useful but not essential, and quick training will be given in use of the software.

A period of induction training is given to all volunteers before they can process transactions at a service point - this includes shadowing the volunteers at the service point for a number of weeks.

Becoming a volunteer with the First Dorset Credit Union will allow a person to do something positive and beneficial for the community, and is also an opportunity to get involved in something new and meet people.

All volunteers must be members of the Credit Union first (it is a co-operative run by its members for its members). An application form must be completed and references provided.

If you feel this is something you might consider, please come along to meet the volunteers at the service point any Tuesday morning.

For more information about the Credit Union and volunteering opportunities, check out the website www.fdcu.co.uk or phone 01305 268444.

Jurassic Coast photos on display at museum

LYME Regis Museum will be hosting a new exhibition in its Rotunda Gallery from Tuesday, June 30th.

Dr Sam Rose, World Heritage Site manager of the Jurassic Coast Team, will be presenting his sensational photographs taken locally.

Dr Rose's photographs capture his feelings for the coastline, trying with each image to be a little bit different, giving an unfamiliar perspective or subject.

He said: "Our part of the coast has immense diversity, from the mass of Chesil Bank and calmness of the Fleet lagoon, to the majesty of the cliffs between West Bay and Golden Cap."

Since a teenager, Dr Rose (pictured below) has always had a camera by his side and has had ample opportunity to explore with it; after reading geography at Leeds University, he worked in Chile with Raleigh International, then Voluntary Service Overseas in Kazakhstan, Mongolia, Eritrea and Tuvalu. Now, the cliffs, beaches and sea of the Jurassic Coast are his favourite subject.

■ THE museum's learning officer Chris Andrew will be giving the first of his instructive and entertaining talks "Know Your Fossils" on Saturday, June 27th at 2.30pm.

These talks are relaxed with good opportunities to handle the fossils and ask questions about them. Chris is a graduate marine biologist and experienced fossil hunter.

Fancy That Cake Company

HEATHER Upham's creative talents at Fancy That Cake Company take cake-making beyond the everyday and into the realms of sculpted works of art. The opening of her new shop in November 2012 at 10, Fleet Street, Beaminster took her aspirations up a gear with a dedicated kitchen and retail space for displaying cakes and selling cake decorating sundries.

Her professionalism has been recognised with ten awards - five silvers and seven bronzes - from Cake International's showcase exhibitions in London and Birmingham and other awards from the British Sugarcraft Guild.

The increase in business and the popularity of her amazing cakes is such that Heather is taking on a new member of staff, a keen young apprentice, to learn the skills of cakecraft.

Heather's fast growing customer base is hungry for her skills in wedding cakes - traditional or quirky - and 3-D birthday, anniversary or celebration cakes, whether plain or elaborate. The number of 'Likes' on the 'Fancy That' Facebook page is testament to the growing band of admirers and satisfied customers, many of whom come back for more!

Have a look at her webpage at www.facebook.com/fancythat66 for a taste of what others have enjoyed!

Fancy That Cake Company is happy to rise to the challenge of any customer's designs so please feel free to pop in to discuss any ideas or cake designs you have. Various cake classes are also being offered to budding 'cakers'. Please phone 01308-862242 for more information.

Uplyme council unanimously object to Sidmouth Road plans

■ PUBLIC CONSULTATION: Uplyme Parish Council previously held a public event for residents to comment on the plans

AT a well attended meeting last Wednesday, Uplyme Parish Council unanimously agreed to recommend refusal of a planning application for up to 120 houses on the border of the parish.

Hallam land Management Ltd. have applied for 100 houses and land for a care home or 120 houses on land off Sidmouth Road, just outside the boundary of Lyme Regis and within the parish of Uplyme and an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Uplyme council's decision to recommend refusal came after a public consultation event in the village hall, where residents were invited to view and comment on the plans, and further consultation at the recent Uplyme Village Fete.

Last week's meeting began with a public forum, open to both Uplyme and Lyme Regis residents, at which all but one speaker objected to the application on a variety of grounds. Councillors also had a background report from the parish clerk summarising feedback from public events and the comments already posted on EDDC's planning website, the overwhelming majority of which were objections.

After public comments were taken into account, new councillor Chris James summarised the policies and plans that the application breached, and each councillor went on to give their own gave their personal objections.

Ground for objection included that the application was contrary to both East Devon and West Dorset's emerging Local Plans; no pre-application consultation was held in East Devon, only in Lyme Regis; the site had already been assessed and deemed unsuitable for development by both East Devon and West Dorset; the site was an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty; and the development was unsustainable because of strains it would create on local roads and services.

Full details of the plans can be viewed online at <http://bit.ly/1LbzKT1> but public consultation has now closed.

Stress can ruin your life

AND the worst of it is, the more stressed you feel the harder it is to do anything about it. So you get more stressed. So it affects your health, which makes everything even more difficult and adds more worries.

If you get too stressed, you can end up wearing yourself out. Feeling worse and worse... And helpless to break free.

Your mind is amazingly good at dealing with things for you automatically. It helps you keep going even in bad times. But sometimes it needs a bit of help.

Hypnotherapy can help.

Hypnotherapy can help in so many ways. To clear tensions and anxieties. To help you deal with things differently. To restore confidence and well-being. To boost your sense of self worth. And much much more.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, can use hypnotherapy and her years of experience to help you.

She has a very down to earth approach and always tailors the therapy to the person.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people. Take a look at her website www.beltain.co.uk or phone 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

The mystery of the shredded paper trail

I'VE written about some weird and wonderful things in my years as a journalist but nothing quite as bizarre as this.

Having returned to the View From office from London last week, I opened an email from Lisa Tuck, clerk to Charmouth Parish Council, asking if I could shed any light on the paper that had been strewn throughout the village, from the top of the main street to the bottom, much of which was the View from Bridport.

I had no idea what she was talking about so I despatched Alison King, my girl-Friday, to investigate. She telephoned to say "you better come over

by Philip Evans

Much of the paper littering the street had been shredded. Initially I thought perhaps the culprit was someone with a grudge against the View (it does happen). Remember the toilet paper incident at the Guildhall? And for months obscenities were scrawled into the dirt on our delivery vans about me. This being a family newspaper, I don't feel comfortable revealing what they actually said about me. Let's just say they were questioning my parentage! Don't worry, I am used to it.

But as well as the View from Bridport, there were bits from The Sun and The Star (nice to be in such salacious company!) and various leaflets, thrown in the hedges and deposited by the roadside kerbs and in driveways. So we ruled out the grudge theory.

But the most unusual thing about this mystery is that we were informed by some of the locals that a similar incident happened at the same time last year and the year before.

We don't distribute our Bridport edition in Charmouth so we checked our outlets in Bridport to see if loads of papers had been removed from the various dump bins in the supermarkets. But this was clearly not the case.

Why someone would go to the trouble of shedding dozens of papers and then scatter them in Charmouth, I just don't know.

Lyme police were made aware of the incident and also knew that it had happened in previous years. They are investigating but they are as mystified as we are.

If there is anyone out there who can shed any light on this, we would be most grateful.

We did our best to clear up as much of the discarded paper as possible. I even had Ali out at 5.30am the next morning picking up the rubbish in Charmouth. There's dedication for you.

The parish council did not expect us to do this but we felt obliged as most of the paper came from us.

We even trawled through the internet to see if someone had started some weird craze like "Tear Up Your Local Paper and Scatter It Down Your Street Day". No luck there.

We will probably never know. To be truthful, I'm not even sure I want to know.

Cyclists go that extra mile for Candles On the Cobb

CONGRATULATIONS to the 35 cycling enthusiasts who completed the 174-mile sponsored ride from Land's End to Lyme Regis to raise money for Candles On The Cobb, Lyme's premier and most financially successful attraction.

The event was billed as "Land's End to John The Bakers" and you will have had to live in Lyme for many years to remember the bakery in Coombe Street.

A big crowd gathered on the seafront late on Sunday afternoon to welcome the riders home, led down the town and along the parade by a grinning Mike Higgs, who founded Candles On The Cobb with his great friend Phil Street.

Before hitting on the Candles On The Cobb idea, former town crier Phil, who now lives and works in France, and Mike got up to all sorts of crazy fundraising ideas so I can imagine the "John The Baker's" idea may well have been cooked up over a few pints.

The event took a great deal of organising and will have raised a considerable amount to help finance the next Candles On The Cobb, which takes place Sunday, August 30th, the sixth time it has been staged since 2000.

Having compered three of the six events, I know just how emotional the event can be with people buying candles in memory of their loved ones and then seeing their flickering flame lighting up Lyme's most famous landmark.

The sight of the Cobb illuminated by the candles makes for a very special occasion, witnessed by tens of thousands over the years.

To date, the six events have raised £76,000 for various national charities and local youth projects. Half the proceeds from this year's event will go to the Make A Wish UK charity with local youth groups getting the rest.

Mike has a hard working and creative committee behind him and they are going all out to top the £100,000 mark this year which will be a fantastic achievement.

○ I HOPE our new council will find time to take a look at some of the town's most scruffy areas and tidy them up.

They could do worse than to start at the head of the Marine Parade, the entrance to Lyme's shop window, a phrase coined by the late Victor Homyer, fisherman cum-councillor.

The very least they could do is to keep the unsightly bus shelter clean and the rotunda advertising the Marine Theatre, an ugly construction, also needs attention.

Catherine Carter Photography

I AM a documentary photographer, a storyteller. I capture the day as it happens, documenting every small detail and expression. In a rustic, natural style I set up group shots for the best lighting then let the characters and emotions of the group come through. Lighting plays an important part in my work, using a clever mix of ambient light and flash, gives a natural look and feel to my photographs. I will spend time with you prior to your wedding, so that no aspect of your magical day will go unnoticed.

Town Mill Cheesemonger

HOW about a savoury alternative or a striking addition to a traditional sweet wedding cake? Lyme Regis' Town Mill Cheesemonger will help you make a selection to delight eyes and tastebuds alike and form an impactful tower or pyramid of tasty cheese! They'll find cheeses that are particular family favourites or that come from areas that are significant to the couple. With almost 100 cheeses in stock from which to choose, Town Mill Cheesemonger is a favourite source for bespoke wedding cheeses for couples from across the country.

Since the Cheesemonger opened in June 2009, they have supplied hundreds of couples with cheese that has helped make their day truly special. Ranging from simple 3 cheese pyramids to a 13 tier colossus! They can courier cheese to any UK location, ensuring that your "cake" arrives on time and in top condition. The Cheesemonger has designed a clever platform to stop soft cheeses from being squashed by those above it - and supplies tasting and dietary guidance information.

The "cake" can be dressed to match the design for the party - and if there's any left over after the meal, it's a perfect late night nibble for dancers and departing guests.

Last year the shop was crowned as UK Cheesemonger of the Year, so you can be sure that you are getting the very best cheeses and service. It's no wonder that their "cakes" prove so popular. Contact Justin Tunstall on 01297 442626 to make an appointment to taste some cheeses and decide on your perfect creation.

Say 'I do' to budget bridal style

By Katie Wright, Press Association

The average wedding now costs a whopping £20,000, according to Time Out magazine. That's a £6,000 rise over the last 10 years - and, furthermore, a survey by Brides magazine revealed the average spend on a wedding dress alone is £1,340. But what if your budget doesn't stretch to those great heights, or you simply don't want to spend a fortune on a dress you'll wear once? Thankfully, the high street's bridal-wear selections are better than ever, offering serious style AND value for money.

If you're looking for something fairly traditional - that is, a dress that's pale and falls past the knee - but don't want to uphold the tradition of breaking the bank in the process, these are your best bridal bets...

Bridal Budget: Under £400

Popular with celebs Stateside, occasionwear designer Adrianna Papell also has a glamorous bridalwear range that's stocked at John Lewis. Even the most detailed gowns, embellished with diamante or crafted from oodles of ivory chiffon, don't go higher than the £400 mark with some well under that, making Papell your go-to if you're looking for a dramatic dress at a cool price.

Likewise, frock specialist Damsel In A Dress this season carries a trio of floor-length bridal gowns that will hold their own against even the most striking backdrop.

Bridal Budget: Under £300

Ghost has a selection of 11 satin dresses in beautiful, vintage-inspired shapes that can be dyed to order in four weeks, with prices ranging from £195 (for slightly shorter styles) to £275 (for long-sleeved and floor-skimming styles). Of the dye options, the Ivory, Oyster and Silver Lake shades fit on the traditional wedding colour wheel, and there's a style to suit every body shape.

For something a little more relaxed, the Brigitte Bardot collection at La Redoute has a couple of dresses that boho brides will love.

The strapless bustier dress, with its gorgeous gathered front and long, dipped-hem train is enough to make anyone want to elope to the Caribbean for a barefoot beach wedding.

Bridal Budget: Under £200

They don't actually come with the bridal prefix, but Coast's host of long, white dresses are more than altar-appropriate.

From the full-skirted floral Lucianna to the lace-topped Lori Lee, these dresses are unfailingly feminine, but they'll still leave you with change from £200.

Similarly, ASOS is packed with wedding-worthy gowns from brands like Jarlo, Fame and Partner and Forever Unique, as well as the site's own bridal line.

With a younger customer in mind, some are a little on the skimpy side, but if you filter your search results by style (maxi dress) and colour (white or cream), you'll find lots of wearable options.

Bridal Budget: Under £100

Even supermarkets have got in on the 'I do' action, with Tesco this year stocking an £80 wedding gown. Floor-skimming and lace-covered with sweet cap sleeves, it's a bridal bargain that's not to be sniffed at. BHS offers more choice with more than a dozen wedding dresses this season, and shorter styles will set you back around £95.

But the best bang for your buck can be found online at sites like Little-Mistress.com, where nude and cream maxi dresses with floral applique details are soft and pretty (without being prissy), and all fall well below the £100 mark.

Get The Look

Wedding hats. As much as we love them, they're generally all very similar, and you don't get much use out of them the rest of the year, do you? Enter Yosuzi, the Venezuelan milliner new to the team at upscale retailer Salt. As seen on the glamorous guests at the latest Salt store opening, these sleek straw hats are formal enough for weddings, but not so feather and flower-covered that you can't wear them all summer long.

Artists join forces again for annual 'Colour, Line and Thread' exhibition MAKING a welcome fifth appearance together at the Town Mill Malthouse in Lyme Regis are four distinctive but complementary artists.

Sue and John Calder, Pete Hackett and Hilary Buckley are joining forces again for their annual "Colour, Line and Thread" exhibition from June 26th until July 15th offering visitors an eclectic and tantalizing mixture of paintings, textiles, photography, sculpture and land art.

Drawn to the tactile qualities of stitch on fabric, Sue Calder enjoys creating intriguing textile images that deceive the eye.

John Calder uses natural materials found on his land, like wood, bark and willow, to build amazing abstract sculptural forms, while Pete Hackett sees the unusual in the world around us, resulting in striking photographs and thought-provoking sculptures from discarded objects found on his travels.

Influenced by art deco, Hilary Buckley experiments with various media, her love of colour and pattern coming through most clearly in her vibrant paintings that emphasize the shapes and contours of the local landscape.

"Colour, Line and Thread 2015" is open daily from 10.30am to 5pm, with a special meet the artists evening from 6pm to 8pm on Saturday, June 27th to which all are welcome.

For further details or this and other upcoming exhibitions at the Town Mill visit the websites www.townmillartsguild.com or www.townmill.org.uk

View from the churches

AT this time of year, Lyme's beautiful Jurassic Coast helps us to feel particularly close to nature, but also reminds us that we must treat our world with care and respect.

Our ancestors clearly understood the need to work in partnership with nature and that they were stewards of this world, accountable for their actions to those generations who would come after them.

Last week, Pope Francis published an encyclical on climate change, which was warmly welcomed both by different Christian denominations and other faiths. The issue is one of the great moral challenges of our times, so this document is important, not just for the churches, but for all those who live together on our planet. Pope Francis highlights, for example, the unfair way in which the huge consumption of wealthy nations has repercussions for the world's poorest places.

Reflect for a moment on your favourite place – somewhere you feel totally relaxed and at home, somewhere you feel completely at one with your surroundings and fully alive. Some might describe such places as a bit of "heaven on earth". It is in moments such as these that we are living fully in the present. All our anxieties, worries, plans or regrets that might otherwise occupy our thoughts, become excluded.

In his book "The Screwtape Letters", C.S. Lewis, the creator of the "Narnia" tales, writes this about keeping people away from the present: "Whatever you do, keep people as far from the present moment as possible. The present moment is the closest thing to eternity people will ever experience and it is where God will have the most opportunity to influence them."

Let's use our present moments as reminders of the need for each one of us to play our role in looking after this planet. UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon recently underlined how important this is, when he said "if people of faith and all people of goodwill work together, there is hope that we can meet the challenges posed by climate change". On reflection, for the words "climate change", couldn't we substitute "all our world's problems"?

ARMED FORCES DAY

Saturday 27 June 2015

A chance to show your support and #SaluteOurForces for all they do

10% of revenue made from this feature will be donated to the local Royal British Legion

National Armed Forces Day 2015

What?

Armed Forces Day is a chance to show your support for the men and women who make up the Armed Forces community: from currently serving troops to Service families, veterans and cadets. There are many ways for people, communities and organisations across the country to show their support and get involved, from attending an event or joining us online to throwing a party or local event.

When?

Armed Forces Day takes place on Saturday 27 June.

Armed Forces Day celebrations begin on Monday 22 June when the Armed Forces Day flag is raised on buildings and famous landmarks around the country.

Reserves Day on Wednesday 24 June will provide an opportunity for the country to recognise our Reserve Forces.

Where?

The National Event will be held in Guildford and local events will be taking place across the country.

Why?

Showing support for the Armed Forces provides a much valued morale boost for the troops and their families. You can find out more about what they are doing at home and around the world by visiting the official sites of the Royal Navy, British Army and Royal Air Force. The public show their support for the Armed Forces on Armed Forces Day, but did you know the Armed Forces Covenant outlines how the Government, businesses and communities support Armed Forces personnel past and present throughout the year?

Who?

The Armed Forces
The UK Armed Forces defend the UK and its interests. They are busy working around the world, promoting peace, delivering aid, tackling drug smugglers, providing security and fighting terrorism.

Veterans

A veteran is anyone who has served in the HM Armed Forces at any time (including National Servicemen, Regulars and Reserves). Armed Forces Day celebrates their continued role within the military community.

You can find out more information about support for Veterans on the Veterans-UK website or by calling Veterans UK on 0808 1914 218.

Reservists

Reservists give up their spare time to serve in the Reserve Forces, balancing their civilian life with a military career to ensure that should their country require them, they would be ready to serve.

An annual Reserves Day celebrates their contribution to the Armed Forces and this year takes place on Wednesday 24 June.

Cadets

The Cadet Forces (Sea Cadets, Army Cadets, Air Cadets and the Combined Cadet Force) currently support over 130,000 young people in more than 3,000 locations across the UK. Cadets learn life and career building skills as well as gaining vocational qualifications.

Families

Our Armed Forces couldn't do their job without the incredible support of their family and friends.

Charities

Although Armed Forces Day is not a charitable event, the Armed Forces have the support of several UK charities and many local events will offer opportunities to support them. To find out more about Armed Forces charities please see www.gov.uk/donations-to-support-members-of-the-armed-forces

The Royal British Legion

Who We Are

The Legion is a big family - all supporting the Armed Forces community.

- We are a benevolent charity giving help to those most in need;
- A membership organisation providing support to 360,000 members;
- A campaigning organisation challenging those in authority;
- A fundraising organisation reliant on a huge network of volunteers;
- The nation's custodian of Remembrance

Members

Members of the Legion care about the lives of the Armed Forces family, past, present and future.

Our members don't all have a Service background but they do share comradeship and common goals. They add strength to the impact of our campaigning work; shape the way the charity itself evolves; enjoy concessions, social and sports events; give time to help our beneficiaries and fundraise for the Poppy Appeal.

Volunteers

Volunteers are the lifeblood of the Legion. There are lots of ways people help as a volunteer, depending on their circumstances.

Some volunteer throughout the year or just during the Poppy Appeal. Some work with our fundraising teams either on their own event or with their company, group, cadet unit, university or regiment. Other volunteers help our welfare teams, delivering the vital support we provide to the Armed Forces family.

Throughout the UK

The Royal British Legion provides support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present, and their families via with offices throughout England, Wales, Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland and in partnership with PoppyScotland. We also have an extensive network of branches throughout the UK and overseas.

CRANBERRIES LUXURY HIDEAWAY

Pulman's girls pampered from head to toe!

MYSELF and a few of the other Pulman's View girls were lucky enough to exchange a usual day in the office for a luxury spa break at Cranberries Hideaway in Kilmington last week.

Although we tried to convince our colleagues this was no "jolly" and was "strictly for work purposes only", it was hard to even believe ourselves as we sank into the relaxing bubbles of the hot tub, sipped on Prosecco and let the stresses of work fade away with our spa treatments.

I had never been to Cranberries before but had heard lots of good reports from friends and family, and I was not disappointed as we pulled into the renovated 18th century dairy farm and soaked in the stunning views of the rolling East Devon countryside.

Set in over 100 acres of private land, owner Steve Little and general manager Verity Charles have renovated the stone barns at Cranberries to create self-catering and bed and breakfast accommodation of the highest standards, as well as a wedding venue with unrivalled views of the area and luxury honeymoon suite.

Steve and Verity greeted us with a warm welcome before giving us a tour of the site, and we were spoilt for choice when it came to picking our rooms for that night, each beautifully decorated with comfy beds, modern en suite bathrooms and some even with their own free-standing bathtubs in the bedrooms.

To top it off, Cranberries has recently opened its Hideaway Spa offering a wide range of treatments using high quality brands, including Elemis, the leading British spa and skincare brand; Crystal Clear skin rejuvenation technology; Jane Iredale mineral makeup; St Tropez tanning products and OPI hand and foot treatments.

As well as favourite spa and beauty treatments, the Hideaway Spa includes a jacuzzi bath and steam showers for individual use and will soon be branching out into more specialist treatments, such as laser hair and tattoo removal.

Spa manager Jessica and her team showed real enthusiasm for their work and spoke passionately about the products used. Their professionalism, expertise and the relaxing atmosphere put us completely at ease.

In the morning, we were each treated to a stress-busting back massage and a refreshing facial using the delightfully-fragranced Elemis range and, after tucking into a delicious buffet lunch and one (or two!) more glasses of Prosecco, it was back to the spa for manicures and pedicures leaving us completely pampered from head to toe.

After all that hard work it was time to chill out in one of Cranberries' many hot tubs and time seemed to slip away as we looked out over the surrounding countryside – a view you just cannot get bored of. Eventually we pulled ourselves away for dinner before a peaceful night's sleep.

The hot tubs are a favourite feature for visiting hen parties, which have quickly become a specialty of Cranberries thanks to the flexible range of special activities on offer, meaning each party can be tailored to suit every type of "hen".

The rural getaway – with accommodation ranging from rooms for individuals, couples or families up to renovated barns sleeping 16 – has also become a popular destination for larger corporate parties and, of course, is now one of the favourite wedding venues of the area.

And Cranberries' success is surely only set to soar further as renovation continues with plans to further expand the spa facilities and open a restaurant with hearty, homemade meals as its staple.

So if you're looking for a quick beauty fix or a head to toe makeover, there can be few finer settings for a relaxing day out than Cranberries Luxury Hideaway.

Comedy trio at the Palace

THREE comedians, fresh from the Edinburgh Fringe, will be at the Bridport Electric Palace Comedy Network on Friday, June 26th.

They are Paul McCaffrey, Ray Peacock and Glenn Moore.

Paul McCaffrey is a stand-up comedian and comic actor who can be seen in two series of the BBC3 prank show, Impractical Jokers, starring alongside Roisin Conaty, Joel Dommett and Marek Larwood.

As a stand-up, Paul quickly established himself on the circuit with his incredibly likeable, 'everyman' persona, winning both The London Paper and the Latitude Festival new act competitions. Paul will be taking his fourth solo stand up show, Paul or Nothing, to the Edinburgh Festival in 2014.

Paul has filmed the stand-up spot on Russell Howard's Good News (BBC3) and is a regular guest on Extra Time (talkSPORT). He has also done studio warm-up for The Morgana Show (Channel 4) and That Sunday Night Show (ITV 1) and can currently be seen at some of the best comedy clubs in the country.

Ray Peacock has established himself as one of the most popular compères, headline performers and TV warm-up acts on the circuit, with Chortle Award Nominations in the best compere and best internet show categories.

It was as part of the highly successful Big And Daft comedy trio that Ray first came to prominence, enjoying a BBC London radio series, three consecutive years of sell-out Edinburgh Festival shows and their own series for the BBC's Play UK, Terrorville.

As a highly sought after warm up act, amongst many other shows, Ray has provided regular warm up for Russell Howard's Good News, Red Dwarf, Not Going Out, That Sunday Night Show, Miranda, The IT Crowd, Friday Night With Jonathan Ross, The Graham Norton Show, French & Saunders, Lee Mack's All Stars and Al Murray's Compete for the Meat.

In 2014, Ray appeared in his solo show Here Comes Trouble at Edinburgh Fringe.

Within his first 10 gigs, Glenn Moore was a finalist in So You Think You're Funny? and a runner-up in the Chortle Student Comedy Awards. Since then, he's gone on to regularly perform across the UK, for the likes of Jongleurs, Off The Kerb and Komedica. At the 2014 Edinburgh Fringe, he was part of the prestigious AAA Stand-Up Late showcase show.

Glenn is also one half of the critically-acclaimed sketch comedy duo Thunderbirds, who had a sell-out run at the Edinburgh Fringe in 2014, as well as a show at the Fringe the previous year voted one of GQ's Top Ten Funniest Shows at the Fringe.

Outside of comedy, Glenn is a newsreader for radio stations across the country, including Capital FM, Classic FM, XFM, Heart, Smooth, Sky News Radio and LBC. He also regularly appears on London Live's Evening News, and the Evening Show.

The Comedy Network night at Bridport's Electric Palace on Friday, June 26th starts at 8.15pm (doors open 7.15pm).

Tickets cost £10 +50p booking fee, or £12 on door. Tickets are available through the Electric Palace Box Office, Bridport TIC on 01308 424901 or online via SeeTickets.

Two orchestras combine forces

IT SAYS much for the lively arts scene in Bridport that it has produced not one, but two chamber orchestras. For many years the Allington Strings and Bridport Chamber Orchestra have been running side by side, and now they even share a conductor in Arturo Serna. The orchestras are joining forces for a concert on Saturday, July 4th in St Mary's Church in Bridport. The programme includes music to appeal to all tastes; Pachelbel's famous Canon and Gigue and Bach's Art of Fugue, Mozart's glorious Clarinet Concerto, Sibelius' romantic Andante Festivo and music from Latin America by Aldemaro Romero.

After the original soloist for the Mozart concerto had to pull out, we have been lucky enough to secure the services of Joseph Shiner, one of the best young clarinet players in the country. Joseph began studying at Wells Cathedral School, achieved a Double First Class Honours in Music at Cambridge and completed post-graduate studies at the Royal Academy. He has gone on to a busy career playing with orchestras and ensembles across the country and in the USA, has won numerous awards and made his London solo debut at St Martin in the Fields in 2013.

Tickets are £10 from the Bridport Music Centre and Book Shop and on the door and include wine and cheese; students have free entry.

Four decades later, it's still not safe to go back in the water!

YOU'RE gonna need a bigger boat! Steven Spielberg's summer classic Jaws is coming to Bridport Arts Centre on Thursday, July 23rd in honour of the blockbuster's anniversary.

Steven Spielberg's original summer hit, is celebrating 40 years of maritime terror. Based on Peter Benchley's novel of the same name, Spielberg's Jaws forever changed the cinematic landscape, setting a whole new bar for mainstream horror.

The story begins when an unusually large great white shark decides to terrorize the inhabitants of Amity Island, three unlikely heroes – a police chief, a marine scientist, and a grizzled fisherman – set out to catch it. Starring Roy Scheider, Richard Dreyfuss, and Robert Shaw.

Masterfully directed with thrilling cinematography and a truly iconic score, Jaws is best enjoyed on the big screen, if you dare!

Lisa Wilcock, Marketing Manager said:

Fabergé: A Life of its Own

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is hosting a captivating new film that tells the fascinating story behind the most prestigious name in luxury: Fabergé.

Fabergé: A Life of Its Own charts the rich history behind the iconic luxury brand, from the monumental rise of 'artist jeweller' Peter Carl Fabergé in the 19th Century to the enduring legacy of Fabergé today.

The film features unique, access to two historic new pieces – the first new creation in almost 100 years, and a recently discovered lost treasure.

The Imperial Egg, long believed to be lost until its surprise discovery by a scrap metal dealer last year, will be revealed to the public for the very first time, having already been sold privately for an estimated $30 million.

The first 'Imperial Class' Egg produced for 99 years. The Pearl Egg, commissioned to mark 100 years since the production of the last Imperial Egg for Tsar Nicolas II, will be unveiled to audiences in exquisite close-up detail. A spectacular objet d'art, it features over 3,000 diamonds and natural pearls.

The compelling history of the Fabergé brand, told by two of Peter Carl Fabergé's great-granddaughters. Tatiana Fabergé recalls the dramatic upheaval of the House of Fabergé from Russia to Europe during the Russian Revolution, whilst Sarah Fabergé introduces the modern incarnations of Fabergé's jewellery.

Experience the wonder of seeing Fabergé's exquisite objects in stunning detail on the big screen for the first time at Bridport Arts Centre on Tuesday, June 30th, 7.30pm.

The World's No.1 Michael Jackson tribute comes to Weymouth

GET READY to moonwalk the night away with the world's No.1 Michael Jackson performer! King Of Pop – The Legend Continues is currently on tour in the UK and is set to take the Weymouth Pavilion by storm when it appears there on Sunday, June 28th.

The production is led by tribute artist 'Navi' who is without question the leading and most successful Michael Jackson tribute artist on the planet. A claim that is backed up by Navi's incredible list of achievements that have been chalked up in a glittering career spanning over two decades in 57 different countries.

Navi's career highlight came in 2003 when he was invited to perform at Michael Jackson's 45th birthday party in Los Angeles. Michael not only applauded Navi but went on to give him a standing ovation and thumbs up. This was an incredible moment for Navi which was captured on film.

"To meet Michael was one thing, but to perform in front of the greatest entertainer of all time and to perform his songs was no easy feat and extremely nerve-wracking," said Navi.

Unbeknown to Navi, the 'personal' highlight of his career was to come only the following day when he was invited to visit Michael's home, Neverland - a surreal experience for the impersonator. Navi spent the day inside Neverland, visited Michael's cinema, zoo, went on a few of his theme park rides and had a barbeque on the grounds. This memory will always be one of Navi's most precious.

The relationship continued and over a period of many years Navi was frequently hand-picked by Michael to work for him in several different ways.

This included coming out of hotels as a decoy to distract waiting fans and press whilst Michael quietly slipped out the back exit. Navi was also hired for promotions of his forthcoming tours and album launches.

Since Michael's death, Navi has continued to work alongside the Michael Jackson Estate and in January 2010 he performed to a sell-out London O2 Indigo audience. The same venue where the "This Is It" concerts sadly never took place. Navi has been touring internationally ever since in his world renowned production King Of Pop – The Legend Continues.

The show also features an incredibly talented live band and dancers who assist Navi in brilliantly recreating all the magical classics from the early Jackson 5 songs to the mega-hits such as Thriller and Smooth Criminal.

Grab Some Sexagenarian Action With The Independent's Agony Aunt Virginia Ironside

PUT that Saga booking on hold and grab a bit of sexagenarian action with agony aunt Virginia Ironside when she presents her latest show Growing Old Disgracefully at Bridport Arts Centre.

Virginia is an agony columnist for the Independent and writes for the Oldie. She's written two books celebrating being a sexagenarian and this show does just that.

The show arose from performing at literary festivals to publicise her book, No! I Don't Want to Join a Bookclub!, but now, a few years later, her next book has come out, No! I Don't Need Reading Glasses! And she's still on the road.

Directed by Nigel Planer who played Neil in the Young Ones, this "grannie stand-up" premiered at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe three years ago, and last year (2012) she did another stint at Edinburgh to sell-out audiences. She's been touring ever since.

In this show she'll explain why unlimited free drugs, fun funerals, grandchildren and sex – or, even better, no sex – make the sixties the best (and funniest) time of your life. Come along and hear some funny personal anecdotes, heartfelt tales from her life, and share with Virginia what marvellous fun getting older is.

Virginia Ironside appears at Bridport Arts Centre this Saturday, June 27th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 or £10 from Bridport Arts Centre box office 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

Legendary band The Blockheads hit Dorchester for one night only

STARTING out as the band behind Ian Dury, the Blockheads are a legendary outfit that has grown in stature from the early days of the Stiff tour in 1977, right up to the present day. Backing up Ian Dury's poetic lyrics, this is the band that brought you 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', 'What a Waste', 'Reasons to be Cheerful – Part 3', and 'Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll', among many others.

Rarely off the road since the demise of Ian Dury in 2000, but now with Derek Hussey fronting the band, the Blockheads are still one of the most underrated British bands of all time, with a legion of fans of all ages.

Their new album, 'Same Horse Different Jockey', was released on 23rd November 2013, which was also the 35th anniversary of the release of 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', and continues to show both their diversity and supreme quality, as well as showcasing their uniqueness.

Derek Hussey's lyrics in the band's new songs keep the combination of poetry, word play, earthy humour and deadly-accurate observations of everyday, British working-class life, that Ian Dury had perfected, but with an added bite for the 21st century.

Derek 'The Draw' Hussey is known to the band's followers as Dury's best friends and minder, memorably singing with Ian and the band at a televised concert in the late 90s.

As well as through their own new material, interest in 'Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll', the recent biopic of their erstwhile front man Ian Dury, the performance of 'Spasticus Autisticus' at the 2012 Paralympic Opening Ceremony, and the musical 'Reasons To Be Cheerful', has seen a resurgence in the band's popularity over the past couple of years and they continue to go from strength to strength.

Along with some new material you can expect to hear 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', 'Wake Up And Make Love With Me', 'Reasons To Be Cheerful (Part 3)', 'What A Waste', 'Clevor Trever', 'Sweet Gene Vincent' and many more from the illustrious back catalogue.

The Blockheads are fronted by Derek 'The Draw' Hussey, and Chaz Jankel, Norman Watt-Roy, John Turnbull and Mick Gallagher still remain from the original band. The current line-up is augmented by John Roberts on drums and a rolling line up of saxophonists that includes Gilad Atzmon, Terry Edwards and Dave Lewis.

The Blockheads play at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Thursday, July 23rd at 8pm. To book tickets or for more details call box office on 01305 266 926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

HOME FIT FOR A KING!

POUNDBURY on the outskirts of Dorchester provides the opportunity to live in a style if not fit for a king, then certainly approved of by Prince Charles.

The development, built on Duchy of Cornwall land, is inspired by the heir to the throne's love of traditional architecture, and is a highly desirable place to live.

Now leading property experts Greenslade Taylor Hunt are offering a three-bedroom home on the sought-after site for £1,175 per calendar month. Tenant Fees Apply; £216.00 application fee. £96.00 for each additional applicant or guarantor. £90.00 termination check out fee. £276.00 early termination fee (only with Landlords prior consent). All charges inclusive of VAT.

The superb end of terrace house at Tinten Lane is available unfurnished and is conveniently situated for local amenities. It is arranged over three floors and includes a master bedroom with ensuite shower room, two other bedrooms, family bathroom, living room, kitchen, separate dining room and cloakroom. The property also benefits from a garage and gas central heating.

The rear garden is lawned and there is a patio area with shrubs and flower borders. In addition there is a garage and hard-standing parking area.

The appealing property would suit a wide range of prospective tenants from retired people to those with families.

For more information and to arrange a viewing please contact Greenslade Taylor Hunt, 45 High West Street, Dorchester, or call (01305) 268786.

308 GTi by Peugeot Sport: The Car For Thrill-Seekers

EVER since the acclaimed PEUGEOT 308 was voted 'European Car of the Year', enthusiasts have been asking one question – when will the Brand launch a more extreme performance-oriented 'hot hatch' version following recent sportier GT Line and GT models?

Now we can welcome the 308 GTi by PEUGEOT SPORT.

Powered by a highly-efficient 1.6-litre THP Stop&Start (S&S) petrol engine and extensively developed by PEUGEOT SPORT, this latest PEUGEOT GTi is offered in two versions with 250hp and 270hp outputs both delivering impressive performance. Inspired by a rich PEUGEOT pedigree in GTi models, the 308 GTi has been developed to have a capable chassis that produces top-level road holding and driving pleasure, with fun and ultimate performance enhanced by the Torsen® limited-slip differential equipping the 270hp model.

The clean lines of the modern exterior style takes the Brand's now-familiar design language in a more assertive and contemporary direction. Inside, the PEUGEOT i-Cockpit cabin has been enhanced to reflect the sporting nature of the car, with additional detailing to signify this performance flagship.

Exhibiting exceptional dynamic prowess was the number one goal during development, but the Brand's reputation for class-leading environmental credentials has not been sacrificed. The powerplant is the most efficient in its sector, with CO2 emissions of just 139g/km and fuel economy of 47.1mpg – impressive numbers for such a capable and sports-oriented model.

A stunning and purposeful exterior

From the very beginning, PEUGEOT knew that designing the most radical model in its range, then creating a top class driving experience for a particularly demanding set of enthusiastic-driving customers was a tall order. Rising to the challenge required a development team infused with a passion for performance and the obvious solution was to challenge the experts: PEUGEOT SPORT engineers, with a wealth of international expertise in the field of motor sport and top level racing.

The visual enhancements they have made to create the 308 GTi by PEUGEOT SPORT are obvious from every angle. Boasting exclusive styling front and rear, the car sits 11 millimetres lower to the ground than the standard 308. The nose features full LED headlamps, flanking a new black radiator grille with a horizontal chequered pattern and gloss-black finishing. The same motif is echoed on the air intake, which is surrounded by sequential LED indicators and a red detail strip (chrome on Ultimate Red cars). Below the bumper, two front spoilers boost aerodynamic performance.

In profile, the redesigned door sills hint at the car's aggressive nature, while the sleek new rear design features a gloss-black section housing the twin exhaust pipes. The GTi signature of the car is clearly visible on the front wings and tailgate.

Mercedes-Benz GLC: An SUV That Fits The Bill To Perfection

THE second generation of the mid-range SUV from Mercedes-Benz goes by the name of GLC and represents a big step forward on several fronts: On a technical level the new SUV clearly makes its mark with the excellent standard of safety that is a brand hallmark, featuring state-of-the-art assistance systems and outstanding energy efficiency. Fuel consumption has been cut by up to 19 per cent in comparison to the previous model. At the same time, the AIR BODY CONTROL multi-chamber air suspension that is without parallel in this segment, the extended range of DYNAMIC SELECT dynamic transmission modes and the 4MATIC permanent all-wheel drive increase not only the ride comfort, but also the vehicle's sporty agility – whatever surface it is driving on. Visually, the body follows the clear and sensual design idiom which was demonstrated so successfully by the GLC Coupé showcar concept in the spring, and which serves as the standard for future SUV families.

"Our new GLC represents a further, systematic step in the implementation of our successful SUV philosophy. It combines the ultimate in driving comfort with a sporty touch, impresses on the road and – more than ever – off it as well, and appeals to the eye with the new design and equipment line," says Thomas Weber, member of the Management Board of Daimler AG and responsible for Group Research and Mercedes-Benz Cars Development.

The design philosophy behind the new GLC essentially favours sensual purity and a modern aesthetic over the classic off-road look. The dynamic design exudes emotional appeal while also employing purist forms. Surfaces embodying a degree of tension and precise lines cite the clear design line followed by all state-of-the-art SUVs from Mercedes-Benz. The GLC only represents a departure from its progenitor – the G-Class – in terms of appearance, however. On a technical level it sets new benchmarks – the mid-size SUV's off-road capabilities remain as outstanding as ever.

The characteristic SUV front with a short, succinct overhang, upright, three-dimensional radiator grille with a twin louvre and centrally positioned brand star follows the successful new design line. Striking headlamps, optionally available as LED High Performance lamps, lend the GLC a self-confident look which is further emphasised by their distinctive night design. The bumpers with integrated underguard come in three variants: in addition to the base version there is a version optimised for off-road use with a larger angle of approach/departure, plus a particularly sporty AMG variant.

The side view showcases the almost coupé-like greenhouse, which together with the 118 millimetres larger wheelbase lends the GLC an elegant long profile. This impression is further reinforced by the gently sloping dropping line which is a hallmark of the brand and by the powerful shoulders. The rising lower feature line also enlivens the vehicle's side view. Matt black cladding in the wings, wheels up to a size of 50.8 cm (20 inches) and the optional side running board provide clear indications of the GLC's off-road credentials.

Division Two was closer with Alan Woodbridge, 37 points, Barry Coleman 36, and Colin Evans 35.

The Ladies 4 ball better ball was brilliantly won by Sue Fossett & Emma Davies, 40 points with Caroline Baker & Hanna Jacobsen 2nd on 39 on countback from Jane Dixon & Lesley Jelleyman. In winning Sue and Emma are the Ping 4BBB winners.

The junior stableford was won by George Seed from David Lyon and Dominic Beardwood with 39, 38, and 37 points respectively.

Skittles AGM

BRIDPORT Skittles League AGM is scheduled to take place on Wednesday, July 8th at the Lord Nelson at 8pm.

All registered players are welcome to attend.

Gig Racing

Lyme second overall in Dorset triumph

BRIDPORT Gig Rowing Club played host to last weekend's gig rowing competition, held at West Bay, which saw three of the area's clubs land a podium finish.

A packed harbour saw the event get under way with the youth section racing in a very challenging sea, which produced more white water as the afternoon progressed.

Bridport's squad continued their good form, winning this event with Lyme making it across the line in 4th behind Brixham and Barnstaple.

ham and Barnstaple.

With the sea worsening slightly and the westerly's gradually increasing in strength, the Ladies A category proved to be a tougher race than was anticipated which the Lyme girls completed in a creditable 7th place.

Conditions were the same for the Men's A category. Lyme, in Black Ven, were embroiled in a constant battle with neighbours Bridport and Brixham, with Bridport holding off Lyme to win with Brixham third.

At this point in the afternoon, there was a pattern emerging with Weymouth, Lyme, Bridport and Swanage all in with a chance of winning overall.

All the Ladies B teams made an impressive start in waters that were starting to ease. Maintaining a healthy position in the early stages, the Lyme girls rounded the final marker to head for home, finishing fourth.

In the Men's B race Brixham got to the first marker just ahead of Lyme and Weymouth. The Devon club stretched their lead on the way home, with the final positions staying the same.

This battle was to continue going into the Ladies C race where once again, all the teams rattled the woodwork at the drop of the flag to ensure their stroke was at its most effective. Midway around it was anyone's race but Brixham pulled out a commanding lead to finish first with Lyme finishing 5th.

Lyme's entered two teams in the Men's C race, and it looked as though the A choice could claim the race in the early stages fighting hard with Bridport and Weymouth. However it was Bridport who finally broke away cross the line first, followed by Lyme and Weymouth, with the second crew, which included Bruce Kahn competing in only his second event and Phil Hayward in his first, rowing a controlled race to finish fifth.

With only four races to go, not one team looked as though they were going to seal an overall victory.

The Ladies Veterans had to settle for fifth behind winners Weymouth who eventually finished ahead of Brixham, Lyme and Swanage.

The penultimate race was the Men's Supervet's category and Lyme emerged from the blocks at a terrific pace leading until the home straight but had to settle for second when Weymouth crept past them with Portland third. A second Lyme crew including the two newcomers finished fourth.

In the last race for mixed crews saw Weymouth, Lyme and Brixham take the lead and hold their positions until the line.

Overall result; 1st Weymouth, 2nd Lyme Regis, 3rd (joint) Bridport and Brixham.

Bridport juniors swoop to success at Swanage

BRIDPORT Gig Rowing Club enjoyed more success at SWANAGE REGATTA held on Sunday 13th June.

The day began with a huge win from the juniors, who were victorious in the under 16s race which involved one 200 metre sprint and one longer race with Bridport, rowing the in the gig 'Blaez' winning both.

The crew was made up of four Bridport juniors and two juniors from Clevedon. Joshua Hamblett-Edwards, a member of the junior crew commented on their performance: "Before the start we found out that we were borrowing two juniors from the winning U14s team so we were quite confident.

"We won our first race and we were ahead for the whole of the second race.

The junior crew was; Ella (Clevedon in position 6), Archie (Clevedon in 5), Oliver Day (4), Dominic Day (3), Ben Blackburn (2), Joshua Hamblett-Edwards (1).

The mixed crew, Ladies vets, Ladies B and Ladies A all secured 5th places in their races.

Meanwhile the Men's vets and C teams came 6th and the B team fourth. The last race of the day was the Men's A with Bridport coming 3rd.

The adult races were over a longer, three stroke side turn course, of which the last two legs were into a strong headwind.

These results left Bridport in fourth out of 13 boats.

White on top
in tricky waters

FOURTEEN members fished the Wednesday League competition at Lyme Regis for most species,

There was crystal clear water but a swell was whipped up by the wind which made fishing extremely hard with five members failing to bring fish to the scales.

The overall theme for the night was to catch a Ballan Wrasse before sunset then target the other species.

The weigh-in showed the difficult conditions with Ballan Wrasse, Dog fish and Huss being the most weighed fish, with lots of mini species also caught.

Lee Chard managed a nice Scad just before the end of the competition to secure his two points.

The results were; 1st Dave White with a (Bull Huss, Dog Fish and a Ballan Wrasse). Second place went to Ryan White (Bull Huss and Dog Fish) and Darren Herbert (Ballan Wrasse and Pout) was third.

Challenging conditions for Lyme Regis sailors

RACES 4 and 5 of the Super Series were sailed in NW off-shore winds, with strong gusts and wind shifts continuing into the Bonning Trophy, the middle distance race to Charton Bay which followed.

"Holes" in the wind and monstrous gusts made for challenging but satisfying racing", said race officer Martin Moore.

He had to swing the start line for the second but a good length allowed for a tactical beat to the windward mark.

Race 5 saw Jon Turner & Richard Parsloe in their new Merlin beat the field, with seven seconds over Dominic Bowns in a 40 minute race, also gaining a first by 20 seconds over Allan Tyler's Fireball in Race 5.

The Bonning Trophy, presented to the club by past Mayor of Lyme Regis Leah Bonning in the 1960s, had seven starters and only 46 seconds separated the first three dinghies on handicap in a race lasting over an hour. This time Dominic gained a 30 second lead. "Close racing and good spinnaker work was evident on the long beat and the reaches and run back", said Martin.

Looking forward to the Scorpion National Championships in August, Martin and Neil will be competing for Lyme, as will Tim Parsons, while Allan Tyler's team runs the racing on the water.

"We are hoping for a week of perfect Lyme sailing weather - south

Youth Sailing news

TUESDAY'S training session started in a good breeze with six improvers taking to their Picos singlehanded and completing a triangular course for their first race.

They were joined by instructors with students of the beginners group in Wayfarers, quite an achievement after only three previous sessions on the water this season due to strong winds causing cancellations.

The flat waters and consistent wind direction helped, but as the breeze died off the second race led to attempts to keep the boats moving in very light airs.

With PJ and two safety boats in attendance, Senior Instructor Grahame Forshaw said he was pleased with the progress which has been made and is looking forward to more favourable conditions to come which will keep the momentum going.

There is the possibility of extra sessions being added to the programme to make up for those missed.

Lyme Bowls

Double for ladies

By Paul Moffitt

IN the Dorset League the Ladies have had a busy but successful week. After a fine 8-2 win against Greenhill at home on Tuesday, they then travelled to Branksome Park on Wednesday and returned with a further seven points.

In the men's league, Lyme 1 remain in charge of Division One after a local derby game against Lyme 2. This should have been 10 points for Lyme 1 but, Paul Pomeroy's rink went walkabout in the last few ends and threw away a good lead. Still, 8-2 is still a good result and keeps them in charge of Division One.

In the South Dorset League, Lyme were unfortunate to gain only four points from their game at Portland BO despite winning on two rinks.

There was only one friendly this week which resulted in a 110-69 win against Ottery St Mary.

Experienced Fitzgerald guides Dorch home

A MATURE half century from Sean Fitzgerald helped guide Dorchester to their second Premier Division win of the season, but there was disappointment for Weymouth who remain bottom without a win after they were dismissed by Stalbridge for just 46.

Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier Division DORCHESTER 187-7 BEAT PARLEY 186-9 BY 3 WICKETS

DORCHESTER won their just their second game of the season with a three wicket win over high flying Parley.

Chasing a challenging 188 to win, a half century from the evergreen Sean Fitzgerald and 44 from captain Simon Mitchem saw them recover from a precarious start to win with eight balls and three wickets to spare.

Parley having won the toss and deciding to bat, lost Hewetson early on to a great overhead catch by Steve Clifford off James Dunham (1-29).

But solid knocks from Cridpand (28), Alex Nip-pard (37), Trueman (19) and Markham (23) put them in a strong position at 148-4.

However, some tight bowling from spinners Rob Waite (2-29) and George Foot (1-34) and two late wickets from Tom Blair (2-51) and Mitchem (2-38) restricted the visitors to 187-7.

Dorchester lost Pete Phillips (11) and Steve Clifford for a duck to stand 28-2 and with Marcus Evans (7) run out on 51-3, the game looked in the balance, but a fourth wicket stand of 71 between Fitzgerald (50) and Mitchem, and a further partnership of 37 with Waite (11) put them in the box seat.

When Mitchem was trapped lbw by a ball that stayed low on 176-6 and Nick Roe went for a duck on the same score, it was left to Dan Morris (15 no) to steer them home.

Mitchem was delighted with his team's efforts saying: "It was a great win and I was really pleased with how everyone played."

"We did drop one guy three times; which I wasn't best pleased about; but luckily we didn't pay for it in the end."

"We all bowled really well, and I think what did it for us was that we only conceded 45 runs off the last ten overs; the last 15 overs we really squeezed them."

"Sean (Fitzgerald) batted very well, and I was disappointed he didn't see it through to the end."

"He's got bags of experience and got a very mature head on his shoulders, and is worth his weight in gold in the team."

On his own batting performance he said: "I'm feeling good at the moment and batting well, I was a bit unlucky to get out to a half tracker ball that just rolled."

POOLE TOWN 189-9 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 153 ALL OUT BY 22 RUNS (REDUCED TARGET 175)

MARTINSTOWN missing all rounder Liam Banfield and leading scorer Dave Herbert found their target just too much in a rain interrupted game at Poole Park.

A half century from Brewster Surridge held Poole Town's innings together on a pretty fast track with lots of bounce where the wickets were shares around between the Martinstown bowlers as Poole reached 189-9 in their allotted overs.

Heavy rain during tea saw the visitors target reduced to 175 off 42 overs, and Martinstown got off to a reasonable start as Ed Nichols and Steve Gerrity put on over 40 for the first wicket.

The loss of a few cheap wickets was boosted by a stand of 65 between Tom Nicholls and Matt Camp who smote a huge six over mid-on to leave Martinstown requiring 42 off 14 overs with six wickets in hand.

However the tail couldn't deliver and Poole knocked them over for a 22 run victory.

Skipper Nichols accepted his side had come up short on the day on what was a tricky wicket, but was disappointed that the Poole tail scored more than he would have liked.

WEYMOUTH 46 ALL OUT LOST TO STALBRIDGE 47-1 BY 9 WICKETS

WEYMOUTH'S problems continue as they were dismissed by Stalbridge for just 46 at Redlands on Saturday.

Only opener Hayden Whyte showed any resistance as the experienced opening duo of Stuart Sweatman (5-34) and Steve Forshaw (3-8), and Simon Sweatman (2-3) swept through the home side in just 18 overs.

Stuart Sweatman then hit a quickfire 34 to put his side on the verge of victory which they achieved in just 5.4 overs.

County Division Two CATTISTOCK 190-9 BEAT CRANBORNE 167 ALL OUT BY 23 RUNS

CATTISTOCK won an entertaining match in beating Cranborne, although they had to thank Martin Langford (4-27) to turn it their way in his second spell.

Chasing 191 the visitors were 123-2 with 25 overs gone, but the returning Langford took 4-7 in three overs to leave them 135-5 and with Billy Walbridge picking up 3-32, Cattistock eased home by 23 runs.

Winning the toss, Cattistock lost Langford with eight on the board, but stands of 48 between Sam Baker (49) and Jon Legg (28) and Baker and Walbridge (36m) saw them 106-3.

But like Cranborne, they also had a mid-order collapse that saw them 153-7, but an eighth wicket stand of 23 between Jack Walklett (21no) and Bradley Damen (10) saw them post a respectable target of 190-9 which in the end proved decisive.

County Division Three STALBRIDGE 2ND 129-8 BEAT BEAMINSTER 128 ALL OUT BY 2 WICKETS

HOSTS Stalbridge 2nds edged a low scoring contest against Beaminster in a rain affected game.

Having won the toss, Beaminster started well with openers Rich Runyard (43) and Hugh Rathbone (39) sharing an opening stand of 74.

But after heavy rain, Runyard's dismissal triggered a collapse as batting conditions deteriorated.

The wicket kept very low and deliveries skidded through which led to several cheap dismissals as the remaining nine wickets were lost for just 54 runs and Beaminster were bowled out for 128 in the 39th over.

In reply, Stalbridge struggled against Baker (2-31) and Everitt (1-15) who bowled with good pace and determination as they applied pressure early in the innings losing three wickets for just 14 runs.

But crucially, catches were again spilled to relieve pressure as Stalbridge staged a recovery through Max Nettleby who scored 61.

Ade Phillips bowled a superb spell of 3-16 to apply pressure, but after further rain delays the ball became increasingly wet and difficult to control.

Beaminster continued to battle but were powerless to prevent Matt Chant's 35 helping Stalbridge from reaching their target in the 29th over, their seventh win in their last eight games.

STURMINSTER MARSHALL 177-9 BEAT DORCHESTER 2ND 47 ALL OUT BY 130 RUNS

DORCHESTER 2nds suffered an unexpected reverse when they were wll beaten at Sturminster Marshall.

Batting first opener Simon Gardner scored a half century for the hosts, and with useful contributions from Ross Humphrey (29) and Will Gage (34no) they accumulated 177-9 despite 4-18 from Mike Peake and 3-33 from Josh Foot.

Dorchester never got to grips in reply with only Foot (17) getting into double figures as Henry Lockwood tore through their defences with 5-5 from five overs.

WAREHAM 118 ALL OUT LOST TO WEYMOUTH 119-4 BY 6 WICKETS

A SUPERB piece of bowling from Ryan Sers saw Weymouth 2nds record just their second victory of the season and leapfrog their opponents at the bottom of the table.

Sers struck after the hosts had reached 70-1 by removing top score Martin Upshall for 46, and then mopped up another four victims to record a "fifer" with 5-26 from nine overs.

Tom Chedzoy then helped him skittle out the tail with 4-9 from just 16 balls; S Axon (22) and Reece Whitty (24no) the only batsmen able to resist.

In reply Weymouth started in similar fashion with Tony Quayle (51) and Andy Jarvis (24) putting on 64 for the first wicket, and although Dominic Webb (4) went cheaply there was no capitulation as Quayle and Paul Webb (21no) took them within touching distance before winning by six wickets.

County Division Five

CERNE VALLEY 2ND 153 ALL OUT LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN 301-6 BY 148 RUNS

THIS comprehensive victory was set up by a fantastic batting display from centurion Jae Miller and 89 from Kim Park.

Nick Voss and Miller had to play cautiously against the accurate opening bowling attack of Chris Smith and Craig Kellaway and could only muster 38-0 after ten overs.

However the surged as Miller launched into the change bowling finding the boundary with regularity as Voss farmed the strike to unleash Miller.

The pair put on 76 before Voss (16) was lbw to Tom Best (2-54). Sam Roles and Matt Stevens soon followed to leave the visitors on 93-3.

This brought Park to the wicket and their partnership of 79 pushed the game beyond Cerne Valley.

Miller batted superbly to reach his century in only 88 balls including 12 fours and seven 6s, jumping on any ball which was short of a length or over pitched, before being bowled by young leg spinner Ben Simpson for an impressive 117.

Not to be over shadowed Park took over the run fest, his 89 coming in only 65 balls and included some lovely cover drives and excellent running between the wickets.

Javed Gill(19) and Rob Rutter(19) both played supportive cameo innings to push the score pass the 300 mark before Park was run out off the last ball of the innings.

Cerne Valley's reply was very solid with Tom Downey(15) and Craig Kellaway(22) playing each ball on its merits against the young bowling attack of Matt and Dan Stevens, and it was the latter who had Downey brilliantly caught one handed by Rutter at deep gully with the score on 31-1.

The change of bowling saw Roles(3-43) strike twice in two balls and 51-3 soon became 75-5 when Javed Gill also struck twice removing the dangerous Kellaway well caught by Miller at mid on, and then bowling Tom Mercier. Gill also struck twice in his last over to return excellent bowling figures of 4-34.

Simon Green (29) decided the best form of defence was attack and produced some classical cover drives and pull shots before being well caught by the diving Miller.

Mark Homewood, making his Saturday debut bowled beautifully and his line outside off stump tempted Dave Baney and Park took another sharp catch in the slips, and Tom Hughes became his second victim as he was caught by Miller with the score on 119-9.

Best (16) opened his shoulders in his cameo innings to gain valuable batting points including two fours and a massive six to the mid wicket boundary and with young Matthew Webb added 34 for the last wicket.

Captain Pete Tucker said "We batted well and it was great to see Nick Voss settling into his opening bat position, looking technically correct and growing in confidence to record his first century of the season.

"Kim Park produced his best innings for the Saturday team and controlled the middle and tail end of the innings with classical stroke play and exceptional running between the wickets."

MARTINSTOWN 2ND 217-7 BEAT PORTLAND 2ND 206-8 BY 11 RUNS

A SUPERB 89 from Jack James was the key to Martinstown 2nds victory over Portland 2nds.

With useful contributions from Adam Kepple and Rob O'Brien, the hosts reached 217-7 in their allotted overs.

Wickets were shared around as Portland came close to snatching victory, but they fell 11 runs short.

Sunday Division Three DORSET INDIANS 215-5 BEAT SYMENE 214-4 BY 5 WICKETS

A CENTURY from Jon Legg couldn't prevent Symene from falling to Dorset Indians at Poole in an excellent game of cricket.

Winning the toss on what looked like a green wicket - but in fact was hard and bouncy - they quickly lost Nick Skyrme (2) but Legg with support from Phil Hawkins (21) and Liam Toohill (27) compiled a superb 100 before being caught with the score on 186-4.

Ollie Lee (26no) and Bradley Damen (18no) took the total to 214 at the end of their allotted 40 overs.

Shanthan (29) and Adnan Butt (21) put on 50 for the first wicket in reply, but Damen (1-34), young Luke Robertson (1-34) and Legg (3-10) with his off-spinners from eight overs reduced the Indians to 108-5.

However Sunny Choudry (81no) and Jignesh (25no) took the hosts to victory with an unbeaten century partnership with six overs left.

BROADWINDSOR 193-5 BEAT CRANMORE 187 ALL OUT IN an exciting game that went to the wire, Broadwindsor got back to winning ways with victory over league leaders Cranmore.

Runs were shared around between all the batsmen with Richie Runyard top scoring with 45 not out, but solid contributions from Dean Hyett (35), Steve Phillips (23), Chris Park (21) and Jack Walklett (20) saw the host total 193-5.

Opening bowler Ross Baker was in fine form with the ball, taking 3-10 off eight overs including four maidens.

Although up with the run rate, wickets fell regularly and there was a scare near the end when the opposition's No9 opened up with two 4s and a big six in a quickfire 20.

But Jack Walklett quelled their enthusiasm with 4-32 at the end of the innings.

CHARD'S Stuart Browne recorded the fastest time on both days of the Three Clubs Hill Climb held at Manor Farm, Chardmouth recently.

Driving his OMS SF2 he covered the slightly shortened course due to heavy overnight rain that failed to clear of water by the start of Saturday's practice in 23.44 seconds. He then returned a winning 26.57 over the full distance to win the event on Sunday.

Several other local drivers completed the double in their class including another Chard driver Mike Egan in Class G1 in his Leyland Mini, Colyton's George Koopman in his Honda Integra (A3), Simon Neve (Yeovil) who won Class A4 in his Mitsubishi Lancer Evo6 RS and Honiton resident David Gardner (Caterham 7) who won the B2 class.

Weymouth's Geoff Blake won Saturday's C4 practice in his Westfield SEiW, but it was Ben Wheeler from Kilmington in his Westfield that won the day on Sunday.

county cup successes

Earlier, League Chairman Jim Jowatt commented on the superb achievements of Netherbury (Dorset Junior), Crewkerne Town (Somerset Junior) and Barrington (Somerset Intermediate) who all lifted County trophies.

Sadly, a prolonged period of illness has forced long-serving vice-chairman Tony Turner to step down for the position. Mr Turner's successor is Beaminster FC chairman Dave Pearson who has been associated with the PSDL for 38 years.

Meanwhile, Barrington Secretary John Martin voiced his disappointment at the club's Reserve team being handed their Division Three League championship trophy at the first team's Arthur Gage Cup Final, he said "It was disrespectful to our Reserve team for it to be handed over at the first team's cup final.

Mr Martin said he would be standing down as a league Vice-President as a consequence. Mr Jowatt apologised on behalf of the league committee and urged Mr Martin to remain a VP, he said he would "think it over".

Mr Martin also requested the Honourarium payment to League officers be made more transparent with individual payments listed. Mr Jowatt agreed that this should be implemented.

The league officers were voted back in en-bloc with Fixtures Secretary Mark Brunt confirming that he would be standing down at the end of the 2015-16 season.

THE recent Perry Street & District League annual general meeting saw the return of Halstock and Fivehead Rangers to the member clubs. Halstock folded in the 1990's and will be managed by former player and ex-Misterton supremo Adge Diment.

The Fivehead team, which ended in it's old guise back in 2010, will be made up of players based in and around the Ilminster area.

In addition, reserve teams from Netherbury and Perry Street, after a short absence, were also voted back in.

So four in, but three out as Millwey Rise first and reserves teams and Lyme Regis Reserves head off to the Devon & Exeter League.

This left a total of 52 teams and, after many clubs complained of a lack of games in the 10-team five divisions last season, a vote was taken on the constitution of the league for the upcoming season. The result was a reduction to four divisions of 13-teams.

The awards section saw Mark Macey land the Referee-of-the-Year trophy with Farway United's Steve Loud retaining top linesman award for the third year in succession.

League Secretary Bob Brunt's selection as Secretary-of-the-Year went to Andy Fish who did a sterling job in difficult circumstances with the club's two remaining PSDL teams both finishing bottom of their respective divisions without a win between them.

One of those sides, the Colts (third team) were the recipients of the Fair Play award as voted for by the league referees.

Successful point-to-point season draws to a close

THE Wessex Point-to-Point Area's six main awards, sponsored by Spillers Horsefeeds, will be presented at the end of season party on Friday, July 3rd.

Leading gentleman rider is Somerset-based Will Biddick, who was also crowned National Champion for the fourth time at Saturday's Torrington Farmers meeting at Umberleigh, Devon, breaking the all time national record.

Biddick rode 68 winners this season, the majority provided by Henley, near Crewkerne, handler Jack Barber, 23, the country's leading trainer with 51 successes.

Both Jack and Will are runaway winners of two of the Wessex Area championships (Leading 10+ horses Trainer and Leading Gentleman Jockey respectively).

Quantocks-based trainer Teresa Clark takes the award for yards housing nine or fewer horses for the first time, with Chloe Newman and Keith Cummings hot on her heels. Teresa saddled eight winners in Wessex during the season, including a purple patch of five consecutive winners in May.

Leading Lady Rider is Alice Mills, who has just announced her retirement from point-to-point racing to take out a professional jump and flat licence to ride under Rules.

Harry Cobden (16) who landed three National championships - the Fuller's Brewery National Mens Novice Riders title, the Dodson & Horrell Wilkinson Sword (for leading male novice under 21 rider) and the Harley Racing National novice riders' race championship - scooped the remaining two Awards.

He wins the Wessex Leading Novice Rider Award and the Wessex Leading Owner Award, largely thanks to his partnership with his own prolific Cock Of The Rock, a 10yo gelding with five of his seven wins in Wessex.

Cock Of the Rock is trained by Mosterton's Rachael Green, who netted the Connolly's Red Mills sponsored national award for yards with seven or fewer horses.

Caddy back to boost promotion ambitions

ADAM Caddy marked his return to the ranks of the Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club 1st XI with a top score 51 in a convincing 101 run win over Filleigh at the KGV on Saturday.

The 26-year-old, who has been off exploring the southern hemisphere for the past couple of years, is certain to add some firepower with both bat and ball for Uplyme who are now third in the Devon League Division C (east).

Skipper Steve Batey opted to bat first after winning the toss and openers Jedd Whittington (44 off 41 balls) and Alfie Bellworthy (5) proceeded to put on 51 for the first wicket.

They then slipped to 113 for 5 before Caddy (51) and Steve Batey (45no, 43 balls) put on 106 for the sixth wicket before the former was run out off the last ball of the innings which closed on 207 for 6.

The visitors began with a 58-run stand for the opening wicket but once Steve Batey clung on to a return catch to dismiss Mark Prideaux the door was ajar and Batey (8-3-27-4) and Ollie Lee (7-1-28-5) burst through to wrap up the win inside 23 overs. Uplyme & Lyme Regis 20pts Filleigh 4pts.

Meanwhile the 2NDS XI's difficult season continued with a nine-wicket mauling at Crediton-based Shobrook Park which saw them slump to the foot of the 2nd XI Division C (east) table.

The team travelled with just nine players and had three arrive late after getting lost!

Fortunately, skipper Ian Thomas won the toss and the depleted half-dozen visitors were able to bat first and wait for the cavalry to arrive.

But 10 for 0 quickly became 31 for 8 (all out) inside 19 overs and the team was back in Uplyme by 5pm after the hosts knocked off of the runs required in just 38 deliveries for the loss of a solitary wicket.

Shorbrook 2nds 20pts Uplyme & Lyme Regis 2nds 0pts.

This weekend's fixtures (2pm)
1st XI away v Feniton P.Barracough, M.Batey, S.Batey (c), H.Brimicombe, M.Brimicombe, A.Caddy, R.Davies, R.O'Halloran, A.Jaques, O.Lee, T.Wellman.
